REMARKS OF APPRECIATION

President Loeb expressed appreciation to those involved with hosting the 68th Quadrennial Convention, including:

- UNITE HERE Local 355
- Plumbers Locals 719 and 725
- IA staff
- Production AV and sound crews
- Convention Photographers
- President Loeb went on to state:

“And the special work that was done by Tommy Hill and Dan Mahoney, Dave Garretson, Krista Hurdon. And especially for all the work she did, MaryAnn Kelly, to make this a great convention.”

“My trusted assistant, Alex Tomais, without whom I’d be likely wandering around the hotel lost, told me where to be and when to be there.

I couldn’t have done it without you. Great job.”

“To General Secretary-Treasurer Wood, for his work every day and his dedication to this Alliance. The work that he did at this convention, it simply wouldn’t have been what it was without the work of General Secretary-Treasurer Wood. So thank you, Jamie.”

“And to all the Officers and Representatives of the International. It takes a village and it is a village. These folks are absolutely committed. They do a fantastic job, with dignity and with honor, that’s worthy of this great organization; and I thank all the Officers and Representatives for their hard work.”

“Folks, to the delegates who support this administration and who have acted on behalf of the members of this convention, thank you for your work and your commitment and your dedication and your support. Nothing happens with a vision just by saying it out loud; people have to act on it. And that’s exactly what’s happened here, and that’s what I hope for, when we leave this convention, that we take home this feeling of solidarity and strength that we’ve created at this convention. So I also thank all of you for your commitment.

CLOSING REMARKS

President Loeb

In closing, President Loeb made the following salient points:

“Being chosen to be the International President of this Alliance is the honor of a lifetime, and I take extremely seriously the obligation to represent members and bring prosperity and security to their families. I want you all to know that your commitment to the members in support of our shared vision is crucial in our success. We are the sum of our parts.”

“You have my absolute commitment, with everything that I am, to do the very best I can do so that our mission and our goals are successful. And our mission and our goals are all about the members. And whenever you ask yourself the question, “Am I doing the right thing?” think about the members. And that’s usually pretty good guidance, folks.”

General Secretary-Treasurer Wood

In closing, General Secretary-Treasurer Wood made the following comments:

“I was thinking earlier this week, that I realized, I attended my first convention almost 30 years ago, in 1988, in Reno, Nevada. And I’ve attended every one since, and this makes my tenth convention. But I will tell you this: To echo what President Loeb said, I have never seen a convention and a group of delegates so unified and singular of purpose than this convention. And we will all be better for it, and the hard work you did is well worth it. We are going to continue to make this union better and stronger over the next four years with your help.”

“And like all good things, it all starts at the top. President Loeb has assembled, in my opinion, a fantastic group of Officers and Representatives to work on your behalf. It’s an honor to be part of that team with them. And, Matt, it’s a pleasure to work with you closely every day.”

Additional remarks of gratitude were made to the delegates by the International Vice Presidents, International Trustees, and CLC Delegate.
